Courts for the District of Columbia

AMENDED CONSENT TO MODIFY SUPERVISED RELEASE

Following the Defendant's conviction of Assault on a Police Officer in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia, he was sentenced to performing 90 hours of community service. The charges culminating in the aforementioned conviction and sentence resulted in the Probation Office of this Court charging the Defendant with violating the conditions of his supervised release in the above-captioned case. The Probation Officer recommended that the appropriate sanction for the violation should be a modification of the Defendant's special conditions of Supervised Release to include 60 days in a halfway house. Both the United States and the Defendant agree with the recommendation of the United States Probation Office. Accordingly, it is RECOMMENDED THAT the special conditions of Defendant's Supervised Release be modified to include a 60 day placement in the Hope Village facility.
