MEMORANDUM

By Order of December 7, 2007, petitioner was directed to respond within 14 days to the federal respondents' motion to dismiss the petition for a writ of habeas corpus as moot, or risk dismissal of the case. Petitioner has not complied with the Court's Order or sought additional time to do so.¹ The Court therefore treats the motion to dismiss as conceded and will dismiss the case by separate Order issued contemporaneously.

Date: January 8, 2008

¹ On December 20, 2007, the District of Columbia notified the Court that its response to the habeas petition mailed to petitioner's address of record had been returned with a note indicating that petitioner no longer resided at that address. There is no indication in the record that petitioner did not receive the Court's Order, however.
