ORDER

For the reasons stated in the Memorandum Opinion issued this same day, it is hereby

ORDERED that the defendant's supplemental motion regarding restitution [Dkt. No. 269] is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part; it is

FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant is ordered to pay restitution as a condition of his supervised release in the amount of $100,000 under the Victim and Witness Protection Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3663; it is

FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant is ordered to make restitution to Stephanie Cockrell (decedent's mother); Kenika Johnson (decedent's wife); and Juwan L. Johnson, Jr. (decedent's minor child, a son) in the amount of $100,000. Restitution payments shall be made to the Clerk of the Court for the United States District Court for the District of Columbia for disbursement to these three individuals; it is

FURTHER ORDERED that, to the extent that the payment is not fully paid immediately, the defendant must pay the balance of any restitution owed at a rate of no less than $250 each month. The Court finds that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest and therefore waives any interest or penalties that may accrue on the balance of the restitution payments; it is

FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant must provide the United States Probation Office access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The Probation Office may share financial information with the United States Attorney's Office; it is

FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant must not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the Probation Office; it is

FURTHER ORDERED that all restitution payments are payable to the Clerk of the Court, U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, 333 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20001; and it is FURTHER ORDERED that within thirty days of any change of address, the defendant shall notify the Clerk of Court of the change until such time as the financial obligation is paid in full.

SO ORDERED.

PAUL L. FRIEDMAN
United States District Judge
