ORDER DISMISSING CLASS ACTION
CLAIM AND DEFENDANT KENNY
JACKSON WITHOUT PREJUDICE
AND GRANTING MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT AGAINST
DEFENDANT JEFFERY JACKSON

13 I. INTRODUCTION

14 Plaintiffs Arthur Jackson and William Conrad brought this action against Defendants
15 Innovative Securities Services, LLC, Jeffrey Jackson, and Kenny Jackson, alleging violations of 16 the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq., and the District of Columbia
17 Wage Payment and Collection Act (“WPCA”), D.C. Code § 32-1303. Specifically, Plaintiffs
18 allege that Defendants have repeatedly failed to pay overtime and holiday wages to Innovative’s
19 employees. The following two motions are before the court: (1) Plaintiffs’ Motion to Dismiss
20 Class Action and Dismiss Defendant Kenny Jackson (Dkt. No. 28) and (2) Plaintiffs’ Motion for 21 Default Judgment against Defendant Jeffery Jackson (Dkt. No. 27.). Upon consideration of the 22 motions, the record of this case, and the relevant case law, the court finds as follows.<sup>1</sup>

II. BACKGROUND

Plaintiffs served the complaint on Jeffery Jackson and Innovative Securities, LLC on March 17, 2009. (Dkt. No. 6.).<sup>2</sup> Neither Defendant filed an answer or other responsive pleading so, on September 3, 2009, Plaintiffs requested that the Clerk of the Court enter default against Defendants pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a). (Dkt. No. 5.). The Clerk entered default on September 10, 2009. (Dkt. No. 8.). On September 11, 2009, Plaintiffs moved for a default judgment against Defendants. (Dkt. No. 9.).

The court ordered the Defendants to file an opposition to Plaintiffs' motion for default judgment on or before October 29, 2009, and advised them that failing to do so could result in judgment in favor of Plaintiffs. (Dkt. No. 13.). Thereafter, Defendant Jackson filed a motion to dismiss within the specified deadline. (Dkt. No. 14.). Defendant Innovative Securities, however, did not respond to Plaintiffs' motion or otherwise respond to the litigation. The court treated Jackson's motion as an opposition to Plaintiffs' motion for a default judgment. (Dkt. No. 18.). On September 30, 2010, the court set aside the Clerk's entry of default as to Jackson, denied Plaintiffs' motion for default judgment against Jackson, and granted Plaintiffs' motion for default judgment as to Innovative Securities. Id.

Also on September 30, 2010, the court denied Jackson's motion to dismiss, which the court interpreted as a motion for summary judgment. (Dkt. No. 19.). As such, consistent with the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(a)(4)(A), Jackson had fourteen days within which to file his answer or other responsive pleading. The record shows that Jackson failed to do so.

<sup>2</sup> Defendant Kenny Jackson was never served. (See Dkt. No. 28 at 2.). The remaining references to "Jackson" in this order, unless indicated otherwise, are to Defendant Jeffery Jackson.

1 The matter was reassigned to this District Judge on April 3, 2012. (Dkt. No. 22.). On
2 April 4, 2012, the court instructed the parties to file a joint status report notifying the court of the 3 current status of the case. (Dkt. No. 22.). On April 17, 2012, Plaintiffs notified the court that they
4 were unable to contact Jackson, and requested that the court reconsider their motion for default
5 judgment against him. (Dkt. No. 23.). In addition, mail sent by the Clerk of the Court to Jackson
6 in the intervening time has been returned as undeliverable. (Dkt. Nos. 24-26.). On April 23,
7 2012, the court instructed Plaintiffs to file an updated default judgment motion. On May 7, 2012,
8 Plaintiffs renewed their motion for default judgment against Jackson. (Dkt. No. 27.). Jackson's
9 response to the motion was due on or before May 24, 2012. He has not filed a responsive
10 pleading.
11

12 In addition, on May 13, 2012, Plaintiffs filed the Motion to Dismiss Class Action and 13 Dismiss Defendant Kenny Jackson. (Dkt. No. 28.). Plaintiffs originally brought this action as a 14 collective action pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §216(b) and as a class action under Fed.R.Civ.P.
15 23(b)(3). (See Dkt. No. 1.). Plaintiffs now seek approval to dismiss the class action component of 16 the case and allow the matter to proceed with the named and opt-in Plaintiffs only. Id. In 17 addition, Plaintiffs move pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 41(a)(2) to dismiss Defendant Kenny Jackson
18 without prejudice from this action because he has never been served. Id. at 2. Defendant Jackson
19 has not responded to these motions.
20

21 III. DISCUSSION

22 A. Voluntary Dismissal

23 Federal Rule 23 requires court approval before the dismissal or compromise of a class
24 action. Fed.R.Civ.P. 23(e) ("a class action shall not be dismissed without approval of the court,
25 and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in

1 such a manner as the court directs.” ).The purpose of Rule 23(e) is to protect the rights of
2 nonparty members of the class with the court acting in a fiduciary capacity for absent class
3 members. See Pete v. United Mine Workers of Am. Welfare & Retirement Fund, 517 F.2d 1275,
4 1284 n. 36 (D. C. Cir. 1975). However, this matter was never certified pursuant to Rule 23(b)(2).
5 As such, plaintiffs’ request for dismissal of the class action claim is appropriate under Federal
6 Rule 41(a)(1), which provides that a plaintiff may voluntarily dismiss an action without court
7 approval provided that the opposing party has not filed an answer or motion for summary
8 judgment. Fed.R.Civ.P. 41(a)(1)(A)(i). See, e.g., Logue v. Nissan North America, Inc., 2008 WL
9 2987184 (W.D. Tenn. July 30, 2008) (noting that the plain language of Rule 23(e) applies only to 10 certified classes so motion to voluntarily dismiss should have been brought pursuant to Rule 41).
11 Likewise, dismissal of Defendant Kenny Jackson from this action is appropriate under Rule
12 41(a)(1). Wilson v. City of San Jose, 111 F.3d 688, 692 (9th Cir. 1997) (“The plaintiff may 13 dismiss some or all of the defendants, or some or all of his claims, through a Rule 41(a)(1)
14 notice.”). Accordingly, the court will treat Plaintiffs’ motion to dismiss the class action claim and 15 Defendant Kenny Jackson as a notice of voluntary dismissal pursuant to Rule 41(a)(1).
16
17

18 B. Motion for Default Judgment

19 Rule 55(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides for entry of default “[w]hen a 20 party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise
21 defend as provided by these rules.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a). This court has the power to enter 22 default judgment when a defendant fails to defend his case appropriately or otherwise engages in 23 dilatory tactics. Teamsters Local 639-Employers Health Trust v. Boiler & Furnace Cleaners,
24 Inc., 571 F. Supp. 2d 101, 106-07 (D.D.C. 2008) (citing Fed.R.Civ.P. 55(a)); see also, Jackson v.
25 Beech, 636 F.2d 831, 836 (D.C. Cir.1980) (“The default judgment must normally be viewed as

1 available only when the adversary process has been halted because of an essentially
2 unresponsive party.”). While courts do not favor default judgments and will only resolve cases in
3 this manner “when the adversary process has been halted because of an essentially unresponsive
4 party[,] the diligent party must be protected lest he be faced with interminable delay and
5 continued uncertainty as to his rights.” Peak v. District of Columbia, 236 F.R.D. 13, 15 (D.D.C.
6 2006) (quoting Jackson, 636 F.2d at 836 (citation omitted)). In addition, default establishes the 7 defaulting party’s liability for the well-pleaded allegations of the complaint. Adkins v. Teseo, 180
8 F. Supp. 2d 15, 17 (D.D.C. 2001). Once default judgment is issued, this court is “required to 9 make an independent determination of the sum to be awarded.” Adkins, 180 F. Supp 2d at 17.
10

11 Here, the record shows that Defendant Jackson has failed to file a responsive pleading to 12 Plaintiffs’ complaint for nearly nineteen months. He has also failed to respond to the court’s 13 request for status reports. Additionally, Jackson has left his last known address and is currently 14 unreachable. In other words, Jackson has “failed to plead or otherwise defend” against Plaintiffs’
15 claims for affirmative relief. He has halted the adversarial process and impeded an efficient
16 resolution of Plaintiffs’ claims. Accordingly, default judgment against Defendant Jeffery Jackson
17 is warranted.
18

19 As a consequence of Jackson’s default, he is deemed to have admitted all of the well-
20 pleaded allegations in the complaint. See Int’l Painters & Allied Trades Indus. Pension Fund v.
21 Dettrey’s Allstate Painting, LLC, 763 F. Supp. 2d 32, 35 (D.D.C. 2011) (citing Int’l Painters &
22 Allied Trades Indus. Pension Fund v. R.W. Amrine Drywall Co., 239 F. Supp. 2d 26, 30 (D.D.C.
23 2002)). Under the FLSA, an employee is entitled to compensation for overtime work and under 24 the WPCA, an employee is entitled to compensation for hourly work. Plaintiffs sufficiently
25 alleged facts in the complaint, which if accepted as true, entitles them to relief under the FLSA

1 and the WPCA. See Compl. ¶¶ 18-26, 28-35, 51-62. This court accepts these well-pleaded
2 allegations as admitted, see Int'l Painters & Allied Trades Indus. Pension Fund, 763 F. Supp. 2d
3 at 35, and accordingly must now determine the appropriate relief. As such, Plaintiffs are directed
4 to submit affidavits supporting their damages, fees and costs within 45 days of the entry of this 5 order.

6 IV. CONCLUSION

7 Based on the foregoing, the court hereby:

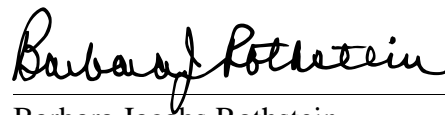

8 (1) GRANTS Plaintiffs' Motion for Default Judgment against Defendant Jeffery
9 Jackson;

10 (2) Directs the Clerk of Court to enter a notice of default against Defendant Jeffery
11 Jackson;

12 (3) Instructs Plaintiffs to present to the court affidavits supporting their damages, fees, 13 and costs within forty-five (45) days of the entry of this order; and

14 (5) DISMISSES the class action claim and Defendant Kenny Jackson from this action
15 without prejudice.

16 DATED this 19th day of June, 2012.
