Clerk, U.S. District & Bankruptcy Courts for the District of Columbia

Margaret E. Schweigert,

Plaintiff,

y.

Civil Action No. 12 0560

Ruth Ernst,

Defendant.

This matter is before the Court on plaintiff's pro se complaint and application to proceed in forma pauperis. The Court will grant plaintiff's application and dismiss the complaint for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

The subject matter jurisdiction of the federal district courts is limited and is set forth generally at 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1332. Under those statutes, federal jurisdiction is available only when a "federal question" is presented or the parties are of diverse citizenship and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000. A party seeking relief in the district court must at least plead facts that bring the suit within the court's jurisdiction. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a). Failure to plead such facts warrants dismissal of the action. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(h)(3).

Plaintiff, a resident of New York, New York, sues an individual identified as the secretary of an attorney in the District of Columbia who declined to represent her. The complaint presents neither a federal question nor a basis for diversity jurisdiction because plaintiff does not seek monetary damages. A separate Order of dismissal accompanies this Memorandum Opinion.
