Clerk, U.S. District & Bankruptcy Courts for the District of Columbia

Defendant.

Case: 1:15-cv-00642
Assigned To : Unassigned
Assign. Date : 4/28/2015
Description: Pro Se Gen. Civil

Federal district courts have jurisdiction in civil actions arising under the Constitution, laws or treaties of the United States. See 28 U.S.C. § 1331. In addition, federal district courts have jurisdiction over civil actions where the matter in controversy exceeds $75,000, and the suit is between citizens of different states. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a). Because plaintiff's complaint does not set forth a constitutional or statutory basis for her claims, it is not apparent that this action arises under the United States Constitution or federal law. Because the complaint does not demand damages in excess of $75,000 and because all the parties appear to reside in the District of Columbia, plaintiff does not demonstrate diversity of citizenship. Accordingly, the complaint will be dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

An Order consistent with this Memorandum Opinion is issued separately.
