MEMORANDUM OPINION

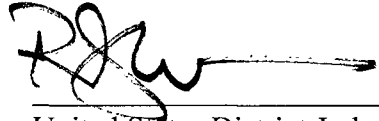

This matter comes before the Court upon review of petitioner's application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and pro se "Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus and the Extraordinary Writs Under the All Writs Act." The application will be granted but the petition will be dismissed.

It appears that petitioner sent by Priority Mail a verified complaint to this court on or about May 29, 2015, and that the Clerk of Court returned petitioner's submission because neither the pleading nor his application to proceed in forma pauperis bore his original signature. The relief petitioner demands is akin to a writ of mandamus, requiring that the Clerk of Court docket his papers and "stand down in playing judge." Pet. at 4.

Review of the Court's docket reveals that, on May 29, 2015, the Clerk of Court received from petitioner a "Petition for Issuance of the Great Writ of Habeas Corpus and [All Writs] Declaratory, Injunctive Relief" and that the matter was dismissed without prejudice on June 22, 2015. See Jackson v. United States of America, No. 15-cv-0976 (D.D.C. June 22, 2015).

N

Accordingly, the Court will deny the instant petition and dismiss this case as moot. An Order is issued separately.
