MEMORANDUM OPINION

In recent years, Thomas Kevin Jenkins has filed nine civil actions in this district court.¹ Only one of these cases has survived initial screening, and all of these cases have been closed. Jenkins has submitted a Memorandum along with an application to proceed in forma pauperis. Although the Clerk of Court treated Jenkins' latest submission as a new civil action, it is apparent that the Memorandum contains no factual allegations and articulates no legal claim. Rather, it is a motion for appointment of counsel to be filed in each of his (closed) cases. The Court will grant Jenkins' application to proceed in forma pauperis, deny the motion for appointment of counsel, and dismiss this civil action without prejudice. An Order is issued separately.
