MEMORANDUM OPINION

This matter is before the Court on the Petition for a Writ Habeas Corpus (ECF No. 1) of Jermaine Joseph Dunlap, a California state prisoner, and his application to proceed in forma pauperis (ECF No. 2). The assertions set forth in the petition are incomprehensible. That said, the Court presumes that petitioner challenges – again – his conviction and sentence and demands his release from custody.

As petitioner well knows, he has no recourse in this district. See, e.g., See Dunlap v. U.S. District Court in the District of Columbia, No. 22-cv-1297 (D.D.C. May 27, 2022) (dismissing habeas petition for lack of subject matter jurisdiction); Dunlap v. U.S. District Court of the District of Columbia, No. 22-cv-1095 (D.D.C. May 6, 2022) (dismissing habeas petition for want of jurisdiction); Dunlap v. Dep’t Rev. Bd., No. 14-cv-145, 2014 WL 414156, at *1 (D.D.C. Jan. 30, 2014) (concluding that “plaintiff has no recourse in habeas in the District of Columbia”).

Habeas review of a state court conviction under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 is available only after exhaustion of state remedies, see 28 U.S.C. § 2254(b)(1), and only “in the district court for the district wherein such person is in custody or in the district court for the district within which the State court was held which convicted and sentenced [petitioner] and each of such district courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction to entertain the application,” 28 U.S.C. § 2241(d). This petitioner was convicted and sentenced in California, and he has no recourse in the District of Columbia.

The Court will grant petitioner’s application to proceed in forma pauperis and dismiss his petition without prejudice for want of jurisdiction. A separate Order accompanies this Memorandum Opinion.
